

THE ROSE SCHOOL OF BALLET

CODE OF CONDUCT

The emphasis of our classes is to learn, improve and have fun. We are mindful of the need for the health and safety of everyone involved and have therefore set out some guidelines to ensure this.

- Respect each other's talents and abilities and treat others as you would like to be treated yourself.
- Listen carefully to teachers, adults and/or each other when involved in an activity.
- Respect any equipment and materials you are given to work with and to share these with others.
- Use the studio/hall in a sensible way and travel around it safely.
- Treat the gym/ church hall and toilets with respect at all times.
- Do not leave the hall during a session unless you have permission from the teaching Staff.
- When waiting for class do not run around the weights area for Fulham.
- Parents to ensure their child have been to the toilet before class.
- Parents to advise if their child is being collected by someone other than themselves.
- Parents to ensure we always have up-to-date contact details
- Refreshments are unnecessary during class term. In extreme hot weather, water bottles are permitted in class
- Parents to provide information on any injuries/ medical conditions that teachers should be aware of
- RAD exam entry replies and fees must be returned no later than the requested date, the school is unable to pay exam fees on behalf of any student.
- Rose School of Ballet cannot be held responsible for any property left unattended on the premises; unattended items are left at the risk of their owner.
- Negative behaviour towards staff from pupils or parents will not be tolerated
- MOST OF ALL ENJOY YOUR CLASSES!

21st July 2023